NO PRICE INCREASES FOR 2008!!!

For this years high season we've decided to peg all our admission prices at the 2007 rates, maintaining our position as one of the most price competitive open farms in the region. We aim to keep offering all our visitors a great value for money, all year round experience whatever the weather, especially with our new indoor play centre and recently refurbished milking parlour with its popular "Milk Daisy" sessions at weekends and during school holidays. Because of the increasing popularity of our attraction we would like to remind visitors to avoid parking in the centre of Esholt village. Please also remember that during school holidays our Tea Room gets very busy, especially between 12pm and 1.30pm...beat the queues by eating earlier or later if you can.

FREE ADULT PLAY CENTRE SESSIONS

Thank you to all the visitors who have given us constructive feedback on our admissions policy in Farmer James Fun Barn. As a result we have now extended the policy of free admission and free play sessions for adults with accompanying children) all year round during school term time weekdays (Tuesdays to Fridays inclusive). We will also be opening a new outdoor patio area with seating or the Spring Bank Holiday.
